Gregory Mc Alpin

Attached are photographs of Gregory Mc Alpin who is missing in Haiti. Mr. Mc Alpin is a Trinidadian by birth and citizen of Antigua and Barbuda.

He is of Negro descent, about 5 feet 11 inches tall and weighs about 170 lbs. He has a small mole on the upper part of his left cheek/ under the left eye.

Gregory Mc Alpin is the Director of Flight Safety of the Eastern Caribbean Civil Aviation Authority (ECCAA).

He and Rosemond James, the Director General of the ECCAA went to Haiti to attend a meeting of the Civil Aviation Safety and Security Oversight System (CASSOS).

They travelled to Haiti on Tuesday 12th January 2010 from Miami on American Airlines flight 1291 which would have arrived Port-au-Prince, shortly after 12:00 noon.

They both checked in at the Montana Hotel. So far they have not been accounted for.

We at the ECCAA would appreciate any information and/or help that would help in the rescuing of Mr. Gregory Mc Alpin and Mr. James Kindly give us whatever assistance you can in locating our colleagues Gregory McAlpin and Rosemond James.
